keynote speakers

Gay Su Pinnell

Lucy Calkins

Carmen Agra Deedy

plus dozens of literacy experts from across the globe!

LitCon
National K-8 Literacy & Reading Recovery Conference
January 29—February 5, 2022

about

LitCon: National K-8 Literacy & Reading Recovery Conference is the largest and best K-8 literacy conference in North America.

Designed by and for literacy educators, and welcoming thousands annually, LitCon is the homecoming of childhood literacy leaders!

who should attend

Sessions focus on best instructional practices for:

- classroom teachers
- literacy coaches & specialists
- building & district administrators
- Title I teachers and coordinators
- interventionists & ELL teachers
- curriculum & language arts specialists
- Reading Recovery professionals

what you’ll learn

With 100+ hours of content to explore, Live and On-Demand sessions - plus a month of access to catch up with any can’t-miss content - means LitCon 2022 will be even more accessible to educators and advocates around the world! Attendees will explore a wide range of effective practices to improve student learning, including:

- reading
- writing
- literacy coaching
- oral language
- comprehension
- vocabulary
- fluency
- literacy leadership
- word study
- phonemic awareness
- differentiated instruction
- equity in education
- English language learners
- strategies for struggling readers
- assessment
- diverse learners
- literacy teams
- Reading Recovery

Find registration options, pricing, and all the latest details at literacyconference.org